THE COURT: These cases are the U.S. versus, and I'll spell them, B-A-Y-H-A-M, S-A-H-I-N, O-S-M-A-N, S-A-H-I-N. It's October 14, 1999, at approximately noon.

6

Mr. Turk, do you swear to correctly interpret to the best of your ability?

7

8

THE INTERPRETER: Yes, I do, your Honor.

9

10

THE COURT: Would you tell them that they've been arrested for violating the law of the United States.

11

12

THE INTERPRETER: All right.

13

(Interpreted.)

THE COURT: I'm a judge for the United States. I'll tell them why they were arrested and what their rights are. This is a copy of the charges against them in English. And I'll make them another copy in a minute for -- so we have one. They're accused of -- they're accused of trying to help Mr. Cakmak, the other gentleman who was here, to enter the United States illegally yesterday.

They're rights are that they don't have to say anything, and if they do, it can be used against them. They can hire a lawyer if they want to. If they want a lawyer and don't have enough money to pay for one, the Court will give them one for free. They have the right to have a lawyer at all times during their case. They have the right to the lawyer before they answer questions. Their case does

1 not have to be decided here, it can be decided in a higher
2 court. They have the right to a preliminary hearing before
3 their trial would begin. They have the right to a trial
4 with a jury. If they are found guilty, the maximum they
5 could receive is a year in jail and a fine of $100,000. A
6 lawyer for the Government recommends that if they say
7 they're guilty today, they would receive a jail sentence of 8 30 days.

9 THE INTERPRETER: Same as starting yesterday, your 10 Honor?

11 THE COURT: Yes, 30 days starting yesterday. And
12 they would not have to pay a fine. They don't have to say
13 that they're guilty if they don't want to. They can say
14 that they're not guilty and have a lawyer and a trial. And 15 the case will be postponed so that they have time to get
16 ready. Those are their rights. Do they have any questions?

17 THE INTERPRETER: Your Honor, they're asking if 18 there is a possibility if they're getting the 30 days to 19 have it be near Connecticut where their home state is or 20 where their families are.

21 THE COURT: I would say no because 30 days is not
22 enough time for the system to move them in. It wouldn't
23 work out. If they had a sentence of years, then they could
24 probably end up in Connecticut, but 30 days is just too
25 short to get them down there.

1
2 (Discussion between the Court and
3 Marshal Service; inaudible.)

4 THE COURT: Yeah, the Marshal Service might move
5 them within the 30 days, it depends on the U.S. Marshal
6 Service, but none of us know the answer to that. All right.
7 Are they going to say that they're guilty or not guilty?

8 THE INTERPRETER: Yes, they will say, your Honor,
9 that they are guilty.

10 THE COURT: All right. Did you have a chance to 11 go over these consent forms with them?

12 THE INTERPRETER: Yes, your Honor, I did. I
13 translated for both parties.

14 THE COURT: All right. Would you ask them if they
15 have any questions about the form, please?

16 THE INTERPRETER: He ask me the question, I'll
17 have to tell you, your Honor, he says can one of us be free
18 and the other one take the sentence? I said were you
19 together? And he said yes.

20 THE COURT: Well, it's a good question, but the 21 answer is no. So, once again, if they wish to say that
22 they're guilty, I'm going to ask them to sign those forms.

23 THE INTERPRETER: Yes, your Honor, they will sign
24 the forms.

25 THE COURT: All right. There's one for -- sorry,
I don't know which gentleman is which, but --

TERESA J. CASAL, RPR, CRR
UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT - NDNY

1 THE INTERPRETER: This is --

2 THE COURT: They have to sign three times each,
3 where the Xs are.

4 (Pause in proceedings.)

5 THE COURT: If they say that they are guilty,
6 there will not be a trial and there will not be any
7 witnesses for them or against them.

8 Did anybody try to force 'em to say that they're 9 guilty to this?

10 THE INTERPRETER: No, sir.

11 THE COURT: Do they understand why they were 12 arrested?

13 THE INTERPRETER: Yes, your Honor, they say.

14 THE COURT: Okay. Is there anything -- do they
15 plead guilty to that?

16 THE INTERPRETER: Yes, your Honor, they plead
17 guilty.

18 THE COURT: Okay. Is there anything else they
19 want to say?

20 THE INTERPRETER: No, your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right. So, the punishment is the 22 30 days that was mentioned, and it started yesterday, and
23 they'll be released on the 30th day.

24 Okay. They can have a seat out in the lobby for a
25 few minutes. Let me take that back and then I'll give them
